

East Midlands Enterprise Gateway:

A Great Place to Work

It's right on your doorstep...

EMEG stands for East Midlands Enterprise Gateway, which covers a booming area of industry and jobs at the heart of Castle Donnington in an area where North West Leicestershire, Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire borders meet. It covers East Midlands Airport, the 700 acre SEGRO Logistics Park East Midlands Gateway storage and distribution site, which includes a Strategic Rail Freight Interchange, making it road, rail and air connected.

DHL is the leading global brand in logistics. DHL Aviation (UK) Ltd provides airport-to-airport services to DHL and other logistics providers across an expanding route network, meeting changing customer needs and offering secure management from tracking to delivery. Securely connecting people and businesses, DHL enables sustainable trade globally, with specialised solutions for technology, healthcare, manufacturing, and more; they are "The logistics company for the world."

EMA is a regional gateway, serving Europe, Eastern Europe, and Northeast Africa. With 4.8m annual passengers (pre-pandemic) and 442k tonnes of cargo, it houses the UK's largest express air freight operation. EMA's cargo network connects Midlands' businesses to 185 global cities. An export tonne passing through EMA is worth £335k, 1.9 times higher than other UK airports. Additionally, EMA's strategic location allows 90% of England and Wales' population to be within a 4-hour truck drive.
